Daily bulletins appear below, the first issued, at the bottom. This PDF file name includes the date of the first issue in the format yy/mm/dd, a format that sorts file storage in chronological order. As this market is updated daily, a new chart is added to the top. This file is replaced each 2-3 weeks, or as necessary owing to market changes and contract rolling. The commentary box is only changed when market conditions warrant, which may not be each day. Prior notice is given of any impending breaks in daily delivery, which are kept to a minimum.

Below the Hi-TechCharts is our EOC chart, a daily chart identifying the bull to bear, and bear to bull cycles, these being the complete cycle. An overview of our EOC cycle is included in our Tutorial, (email us for a copy markethotspots@gmx.com) but for Users to get the best results by marrying EOC cycles to elliptical cycles in Hi-TechCharts, we recommend emailing us for a copy of George Bayer's 'The Egg of Columbus' from which the EOC analysis is derived.

Upside price limit for this cycle series

SP500 has been trapped in the narrow channel between IC2 & IC3 with only 1 close outside (5th Feb). It is possible price action will enter the IC1/IC2 channel to make a final top. On the other hand, IC3 is the key support and once closes break below, it is highly likely price will fall to the lower C lines (around 6250) and not trade above IC3.

Upside price limit for this cycle series

If SP500 breaks up through IC2, we expect a bull market top at IC1. The most likely timing would be at target 1. Following this top, price action will occupy the IC1/IC2 channel until closes drop below IC2, and that should rule out price re-occupying the IC1/IC2 channel. And closes below IC3 leaves no support until the C lines - C2,C3,C4.
